Summary

We call our services Divine Service, thus God's Service, because He is present to bless us! We gather as the baptized children of God to receive the precious blessings of God!

You can get dressed up, which is nice, or come as you are; people can only look at each other, but God looks at the heart.

Our services are easy to follow. When you attend receive a Service Folder, which will make each part easy to understand and spiritually beneficial. We do want people to attend, but we especially want them to be richly blessed through Word and Sacrament now and always!

Read our Join Us brochure, which includes our Divine Service schedule.

For more, see the items in the Divine Service Information section of our Welcome page.

Blessings

We gather in God's presence to hear His Word, confess our sins, receive His forgiveness, sing His praises, offer our prayers, receive Jesus' body and blood for the forgiveness of our sins, and depart with His peace!

Read our Why Gather Each Week brochure, which lists many wonderful benefits!

Our reception of the Lord's Supper is Jesus' greatest way of assuring believers that their sins are forgiven through His finished work. To learn more about the Supper, read these brochures:

- The Lord's Supper – Part 1 of 3: OT, Mystery, and More
- The Lord's Supper – Part 2 of 3: The Elements
- The Lord's Supper – Part 3 of 3: Luther's Questions and Our Practice
